

Private Cinema Rental FAQs

When do the doors to my auditorium for my private screening open?

Doors open 15 minutes prior to the film scheduled start time on all direct bookings. For Premium Private Screenings auditorium access is made available 30 minutes prior to film start and access ends as soon as the credits are over. For additional time needed additional fees will apply.

Wait, what is a Premium Private Screening?

Premium Private Screenings feature your private auditorium, film, plus one of our Premium concession packages (Birthday or After Party) for up to 20 guests, or any bookings larger than 25. Pricing starts at $399 plus tax and fees.

Can I book more than 20 guests?

Book instantly online for up to 20 included guests, 5 more maybe added at the theatre for an additional per ticket costs, subject to availability. Please contact theater prior to arrival for confirmation. For groups larger than 25 please request a quote.

What is the Preview Package, and do I need a reservation?

Our preview package is bottomless popcorn and soda for $150 for up to 20 guests, $10 each additional guest. No reservations are required, please see concessions for details. Bottomless Ices are available for an additional $2 per person upcharge.

Can I cancel or reschedule my Private Screening?

You may cancel a Private Screening rental booked directly by contacting the theatre up to 48 hours of your scheduled event, after which no refunds are allowed. Premium private screenings must be paid seven days in advance, in the event of a Covid-19 illness the event may be rescheduled 14 days later, subject to availability. All funds will be applied to a gift card for future use.

What can I expect with my private booking?

Your private auditorium will be cleaned and sanitized and ready for admission 15 minutes prior to your scheduled start time. You will only need to purchase one ticket which we will scan once your completed party has arrived. If you anticipate late arrivals, please coordinate with manager for assistance. Trailers and pre-show entertainment will begin at scheduled start time.

Can I bring in cake or cupcakes to celebrate a birthday?

No outside food or beverage is permitted. For our premium birthdays we do allow cake/cupcakes with management approval. See additional birthday FAQs below.

PREMIUM BIRTHDAY PARTY FAQs

What is included with the Premium Birthday Party Package?

Our premium birthday party packages start at $300, not including the cost of the film rental, taxes and set up fees for up to 20 guests. This includes bottomless popcorn, soda, Icee, with complimentary kids' packs, choice of 20 classic cinema candies, and choice of hot dog or pizza lunch with Frito Lay Chips service (subject to location availability). We will set up a table in auditorium decorated with classic birthday party decor and doors will open 30 minutes prior to scheduled film start time. You will have a total of 15 minutes prior to film credits conclusion to gather all your things and exit the auditorium.

What if I have more than 20 guests?

Each additional guest is charged $5 per person for bottomless popcorn, soda and Icee plus the cost of the ticket for the film reserved. Additional candies, hot dogs, or pizzas will be charged at the ala carte price.

Are the party rooms included?

Yes, subject to local CDC and CinemaSafe guidelines. See local theatre management for availability.

Am I allowed to bring in outside food or drink?

Cakes or cupcakes are allowed with management approval. No additional food or beverage is permitted.

Can I decorate?

Some party favor items are allowed to help you celebrate and make this occasion as special as possible, this includes special plate ware, tablecloths, decorative head bands, and cups that are easily disposable. No balloons, confetti or anything that affixes to the wall or chairs are permitted. Please speak with local manager prior to your arrival for approval of all decorations and party favors.
